

UNHEARD VOICES

a film by Mike Yam

The launch of a new documentary film, UNHEARD VOICES, produced by Mike Yam and the Toronto Disaster Relief Committee. The film, based in Toronto, follows the footsteps and voices of seven people who have spent years on the streets of Toronto. It is a powerful exposé of a system gone terribly wrong.

A panel discussion will follow the screening, where issues around homelessness, affordable housing, the current political climate and strategies for action will be discussed.
